

Our Mission

To assure a strong economy and continued employment opportunity for the Pacific Northwest by advocating adoption of balanced energy policies that promote reliable clean energy supplies, sufficient energy infrastructure, energy efficiency and renewable resource development; to empower our members with tools and information to carry our message; to develop political support to advance our mission; and to educate the public on the need for energy policy reform and responsible decision-making grounded in economics and bound by real-world constraints.

The Job Keepers.